PHONE'S R-R-B-Z-Z DRIVES AGED HEAD OF HOUSE TO LAW

Sound Gets on His Nerves, but Wife Signed Contract and She Wants That Buzzer.

Robert R. B. Z. Z. was the telephone listed as Chelsea 1278 and located in the big one-family house at No. 123 West Eleventh Street, when an Evening World reporter called the number to-day.

Quicker than in the case of most telephone numbers a sweet voice on the other end responded with a genial hello.

"This is Mrs. Stewart, is it not?" the reporter asked.

"Yes, this is Mrs. Stewart," replied the gentle voice, which was so soft and gentle that it made a marked impression on the reporter.

"May I speak to Mr. Stewart?" the reporter inquired.

"Right," said the voice on the part of the sweet voice, then this:

"Mr. Stewart is home."

"Thank you," said the reporter, upon which the soft voice had played with wonderful effect.

"You are welcome," said the soft sweet voice.

"I really would like to talk to Mr. Stewart," the reporter repeated.

"But you see," said the voice—and then more hesitation, after which came this: "Your son will be home soon, would you like to talk to him?"

The reporter made it plain that Mr. Stewart was wanted.

"Really, now, I wish it were possible to call Mr. Stewart to the phone, but you know he now wouldn't our son do just as well?"

The reporter insisted on talking to the head of the house and finally the sweet voice said:

"I am extremely sorry, but you know—"

"And another hesitation and then this in rapid speech—"but Mr. Stewart doesn't answer the phone."

"Oh," the reporter mumbled and then looked the receiver.

"This is only the prologue to the story. There's a reason why Mr. Stewart doesn't answer the phone. If he could have his way Chelsea 1278 and every other phone would be relegated to the ash heap, because to him there is no more distant than the tingly-buzz-buzz tingly of the phone."

That dislike accounts for the fact that Mr. Stewart, who owns the house and is seventy-nine years old, has asked Supreme Court Justice Newburger to sign an order compelling the New York Telephone Company to take the phone out. He has demanded, requested and insisted upon its removal. Yet it hangs to the wall in the same spot and makes his life miserable whenever it rings.

On the other hand, Mrs. Stewart, who is nine years younger than her husband, wants the phone and insists that it remain. She is backed up in this regard by her son, one of whom is Dr. Edgar E. Stewart, a physician living in Great Neck, who, in affidavits on file, says that his mother's feebleness demands that she have some means of getting in quick communication with her sons.

And the telephone company doesn't know just where it stands. Mr. Stewart is admittedly the head of the house, but Mrs. Stewart signed the contract for the phone, and if the phone was removed she might turn around and sue to have it re-installed.

It is a perplexing question. However, the whole thing is up to Justice Newburger.

BOER GENERAL PREDICTS
GERMANS WILL WIN WAR

Says England Will Be Starved Out and Willing to Come to Terms by Next Fall.

Among the passengers on the Helig Olav, arriving to-day from Copenhagen, was Gen. Fearson, former representative in the United States of the Boer Republic and Quartermaster General of the Boer Army during the war with England. Gen. Fearson has been in Berlin and other German cities since the outbreak of the war, and has also visited the western battle front.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind; I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in the grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone; my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 28, Shamrock, Missouri.

For Thursday 17 Minutes Grand Central to A. &amp; S. Subway Station, Hoyt Street. For Thursday

2,500 Women's Tailored Skirts, $1.98
Fifteen Different Styles,

Black and Navy Serges, Black and White Checks, Mixtures, Stripe Worsteds and Block Checks

THIS IS THE GREATEST SALE OF ALL. About two weeks ago we made a similar announcement, and, although the quantity was large, hundreds of people were disappointed. It was one of the most successful sales of Skirts ever held anywhere.

Now, with a great quantity, and, if anything, garments that are a tiny bit better, we make this announcement with the absolute assurance that Brooklyn women have never been invited to share in a sale of Skirts more remarkable than this.

The sale includes waistbands from 23 to 29 and then from 30 to 40—a most extraordinary assemblage. Not only are the materials—black and navy serges, black and white checks, mixtures, stripe worsteds and block checks—the most desired for Spring, but
